Thank you for everything you did as a parish faith community to make the 25th anniversary celebration for Our Lady of the Wayside Church at Broughderg last Wednesday evening (1st September) such a blessing for our parish. We are grateful for the presence of Bishop Edward Daly our retired bishop who led us in prayer at the Eucharist as he did 25 years ago. We are grateful for the presence of so many priests, some of whom were here in 1985 and others who came for their first visit. We thank all our liturgy participants, lectors, those who presented the offertory gifts our fine choir who lead the music ministry, our sacristan and caretaker. We are grateful for all who gave their time and talents to have the church looking so refreshed and renewed for this occasion. We are grateful for the collaboration of Our parish committees, Finance, Buildings and Maintenance, and the specially-formed Our Lady of the Wayside Anniversary Committee. We are grateful to the Broughderg Community Association who invited us go to their Community Hall (formerly St. Mary's Church) after Mass.

The Gospel is alive and active when and where we work together. Thank you.

Mass Broadcast Via BBC Radio Ulster: Next weekend we will host BBC Northern Ireland who will broadcast our parish Mass as part of their religious programming for Sunday morning. There will be a practice for the choir, readers and all participants in our liturgy at 7.00pm on Saturday 11th September. Because of the earlier timing for the Broadcast Mass, we need to bring forward the time for Mass in St. Patrick's Greencastle to 8.30am.

Hosting a 'Station Mass' is a long tradition in the life of our parish communities in the Catholic Church. It reflects our openness to God and our hospitality to our neighbour. Hospitality should be kept as simple as possible. It is important that our priorities have the right focus. Mass in our homes is a blessing to the family and to the local area. It would be a blessing if one family in each townland were willing to host a 'Station'.

WHAT YOU CAN DO TO SUPPORT WORLD SUICIDE PREVENTION DAY?

World Suicide Prevention Day is an opportunity for all sectors of the community, those bereaved by suicide, members of the public, charity organisations, ethnic minority communities, practitioners, researchers, policy makers, politicians', volunteers, the churches, other interested groups, and individuals to join collectively at Stormont Buildings at 4.15am or at the other points of departure and walk, "Out of the Darkness and into the Dawn" on the 10th September. You are invited to walk from Stormont Parliament Buildings at 4.15am proceeding to the City Hall arriving at 6.00am. Alternatively you can join the walk from various points across Belfast and walk to the City Hall arriving at 6.00am where all of the groups will meet for a service of reflection and hope. Contact Mary Creaney at Suicide Awareness and Support Group on (028) 9023 9967 or Tommy Holland on (079) 2623 9000 regarding the 'Walk' or any information required for the Garden of Reflection departure from Springhill to City Hall.

WORLD SUICIDE PREVENTION DAY WALK OUT OF THE DARKNESS INTO THE DAWN 10th September, 2010

The annual 'Walk of Life' event, walking, 'Out of the Darkness and into the Dawn' is a collective approach to mark World Suicide Prevention Day 10th September. Suicide Awareness & Support Group, East Belfast Survivors of Suicide Group, FASA and PIPS are organising an event to raise suicide awareness. The "Walk Out of the Darkness and into the Dawn" event will commence from Stormont Parliament Buildings at 4.15am in the morning and proceed to Belfast City Hall arriving there at 6.00am.

The walk is to signify walking through darkness and into the light as an expression of hope for those families and individuals affected by this issue. Other groups working with families bereaved through suicide from across North, West and South Belfast such as SOS, PIPS, FASA and SA&SG to name but a few, will also be leaving their respective geographical locations and walking to City Hall to mark the day as a Belfast Wide event.

We need all of our respective communities to support World Suicide Prevention Day on the 10th September by walking with us out of the darkness and walking into the light of a new dawn the light of new hope for suicide prevention. We all need to focus our attention on the unacceptable burden of suicidal deaths within our communities. The World Health Organisation stated that "suicide is an underestimated community health issue", this is clearly evident in the wider community of Belfast.

Last year the Lord Mayor Naomi Long was invited to attend the event and make an opening address to the public at City Hall, this year Lord Mayor Pat Convery will make his address in a celebration of life to a gathering of people from all across Belfast. There will be four Large Lanterns released as a tribute to those who were lost through suicide and one representative from the various groups will be asked to speak following Lord Mayor Convery's address. Tea, coffee and refreshments will also be available on the morning as well as information booklets on support services and advice available to support families affected by the issue of suicide.

World Suicide Prevention Day is held on 10th September each year as an initiative of the International Association for Suicide Prevention (IASP), and is co-sponsored by the World Health Organisation (WHO). The theme in 2010 is Suicide Prevention in Different Cultures. The purpose of World Suicide Prevention Day is to improve education about suicide, disseminate information, decrease stigmatization and, most importantly, raise awareness that suicide is preventable.

World Suicide Prevention Day 2010, Suicide Prevention in Different Cultures provides an opportunity to remind people that suicide is influenced by cultural, religious, legal, historical, philosophical and traditional factors and that these contexts need to be taken into account in considering suicide prevention. Suicide needs to be understood in terms of its cultural background, and, to save lives, suicide prevention programs need to be tailored to different cultural contexts.

Seeing your life through the lens of the gospels – Luke 14:25-33:

1. The passage is a call to both radical and practical discipleship. When have you found that in order to achieve a certain objective you had to make it a priority, and then take the practical steps necessary to reach your goal? What were the benefits to you when you did this?
2. 'Hate' is prophetic exaggeration for the uncompromising loyalty Jesus seeks in disciples. There may be times when people make demands in conflict with fidelity to another relationship. This can be painful. When have you found that being clear about your priorities helped you in that situation?
3. Jesus uses parables here to tell us that in important human affairs we do not settle for vague aspirations. When have you found that some element of practical planning has been necessary to make progress with a project? What has this taught you about making the most of your life and of your time?

The Deep End – Whole-Hearted:

You hear them in the street, on buses and on trains: mobile phone conversations. They can be annoying; for two reasons at least. First, some users of phones seem to think it necessary to shout into them presumably because of the distance between themselves and those at the other end. Second, you get only a 'halfalogue' – one side of the conversation.

Scientists at Cornell University, New York, claim that hearing only one half of a conversation is more draining on one's attention than hearing all of it. They experimented with students who were given concentration exercises while hearing one or two speakers on mobile phones. Their conclusion: people are less able to divert their attention from a half-heard conversation than from a fully heard one.

Half of anything rarely satisfies. It can even be irksome. It's the whole hog or nothing. The same can be said for half-hearted effort. Take today's Gospel reading for example (Luke 14:25-33). It ends on a note that could be sombre, or joyful, depending on the generosity of one's response to it: 'None of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions.' What a prospect! You can't follow Jesus half-heartedly. It's total commitment, or no commitment. To put flesh on that, it means there can be no Jesus-free zones in my life; that nothing in life is more important than the values he holds out to me. Therefore, I don't sacrifice these, ever, for anything else.

I wonder how many of us get that part of the conversation.

Questions people ask:

Q. St. Paul told slaves to obey their masters. Why didn't he speak out against the evils of slavery?

A. In Paul's day slaves were often better off than free citizens. Because slave-owners wanted healthy servants, their slaves were more assured of food and lodgings than many of the free. Some students of Paul's life maintain that his parents were slaves who were granted freedom and Roman citizenship when they grew too old to work, a cheap way out for their masters. In today's Second Reading Paul appeals to the Christian master, Philemon, to take back the runaway slave, Onesimus, no longer as a slave but as a brother in Christ.
