Some Facts Regarding the Eucharistic Congress:

- The First International Eucharistic Congress was held in Lille (France) in 1881.
- Up to the 1920s the Eucharistic Congresses focused primary on the Eucharist itself (liturgy, adoration, real presence, frequent communion etc.).
- From the 1920s there was a change of emphasis. While the Sacrament of the Eucharist and the Sacrifice of the Mass remained central to the Congress, there was also a growing emphasis on what it meant to be a Eucharistic people in the particular context of place and time.
- The theme of the 1932 Dublin Congress was: The Eucharist and Ireland.
- The last two Congresses were held in:
 - 2004 Guadalahara (Mexico) The Eucharist: Light and Life of the New Millennium.
 - 2008 Quebec City (Canada) The Eucharist: Gift of God for the Life of the World.
- The 2012 Congress in Dublin:
 - Will be the 50th International Eucharistic Congress
 - Will mark the 50th anniversary of the inauguration of the Second Vatican Council.
- The Pope decides the theme for each Eucharistic Congress, taking into account the recommendations of the theological commission established by the Bishop of the host diocese. We hope to know the theme by late spring or early summer.
- Once the theme for the Congress has been decided, a theological commission appointed by Archbishop Diarmuid Martin in consultation with the episcopal conference, will prepare the conference document. This will be a short booklet, which will explore the theme and suggest ways in which it can be developed in the programme of evangelization and catechesis which will take place in each diocese in Ireland, and further afield.
- A Congress logo will be designed and a Congress 'hymn' will be prepared to five expression to the theme.
- Events at the last International Eucharistic Congress in Quebec included:
 - A daily celebration of the Eucharist
 - Talks, reflections and workshops on the meaning of the Eucharist and its implications for Christian living.
 - A packed lunch shared by 13,000 participants
 - Choral concerts and plays
 - Dedicated venues for adoration of the Blessed Sacrament
 - A gathering place for young people
 - A Blessed Sacrament procession through the streets of Quebec City
 - A closing Mass with a telecast from Pope Benedict.

Reflection on Exams: Exams are a test of knowledge or skill. They have their importance. However, they are not a measure of the worth of the individual. They indicate one aspect of us, but we are much more than any exam can show. Success or failure does not give the full measure of our worth. Each one of us is unique and precious with our own gifts and talents. God made us that way. God wants us to use those talents. Exams can be an anxious time. But remember, we are more than our exam results. We are loved for who we are, not for our achievements. God wants us to discover all our wonderful gifts. Missionaries of the Sacred Heart Support Centre

This Week's Calendar of Saints:

Monday 14 th June – St. Davnet (virgin) Lived and died in Tyndavnet at Sliabh Beagh in Co. Monaghan. Tradition speaks of Saint Davnet as a virgin and founder of a church or monastery. A bachall (staff) said to have been hers has been preserved and in the past it was used as test of truth.
 Saturday 19th June – St. Romauld Was a monk who lived a life of strict penance and solitude. He established many monasteries, most notably at Camaldoli in Tuscany. He died in 1027. Sunday 20th June – The Irish Martyrs Not celebrated this year. Sunday takes precedence over feast days in our lituray. days in our indigy.

Questions people ask:

- Q. My faith in the Church as an institution has been totally shattered. How can I ever respect a corrupt Church?
- A. Think of one way that an orange is different to a potato. One bad spot in the orange and the whole fruit is contaminated. But a black spot in a potato can be picked out and the remainder is grand. The Church, I suggest, is the potato rather than the orange. The regrettable behaviour of a small minority does not mean that the entire Church is corrupt. The behaviour of Judas or the lies told by Peter did not mean the apostles were entirely corrupt. The idea of an all perfect Church is a figment of romantic desire far removed from the kingdom of weeds and wheat.

Seeing your life through the lens of the gospels – Luke 7:36-8:3:

- 1. The Reign of God which Jesus came to proclaim is marked by an inclusive love, a love which reaches beyond traditional bigotry and prejudice. When have you seen that kind of inclusive love in another? When have you been able to reach beyond your own instinctive prejudices? What was it like for you to be able to do this?
- 2. Perhaps you have had the contrasting experiences of being excluded because of prejudice, and of being accepted despite perceived difference. What were the effects on you in each case? What does this teach you about life-giving behaviour?
- 3. Jesus gave the woman an experience of being accepted as she was, despite her sinfulness. When have you had the experience of being accepted by another, warts and all? When have you been able to give that experience to another?
- 4. Forgiveness is one of the characteristics of the Reign of God announced by Jesus. When have you experienced the life-giving effects of forgiveness given or received? John Byrne OSA (john@orlagh.ie)

The Deep End – Soft Touch:

A gribble is a sea worm, 1-4 mm long, and a pest. The scourge of seafarers, gribbles bore into ships' planks and wreck them. Digesting their cellulose, they cause much destruction to marine timber structures such as jetties and piers. But, they're peerless when it comes to recycling driftwood. Researchers have found that the enzymes gribbles use to break down woody cellulose and turn it into energy-rich sugars could convert wood and straw to liquid biofuel. So today's pest may become tomorrow's pet. By doing a-what-comes-naturally they help the environment.

The woman in today's Gospel reading is also doing-a-what-comes-naturally (Luke 7:36-8:3). While it seems outrageous to the Pharisee that Jesus should be at ease with a woman of her type touching him, it really is a case of both her and Jesus doing a-what-comes-naturally: she, a sinner approaching him for forgiveness, and he, the Saviour, accepting the sinner graciously. The only one feeling discomfort is the Pharisee on the sideline. Despite any appearance to the contrary that can prove an uncomfortable place to be, at least for Christians, the self-righteous and hypocrites.

Jesus is open to all people, particularly those to whom society is closed. But he's more than open. He doesn't wait in the wings for them to approach him. He seeks them out and brings them centre stage.

Just as researchers have discovered that the grubby little gribble has something worthwhile to offer society, so too do we discover that those whom society considers grubby have much to offer when we regard them as Jesus does. Fr. Tom Cahill SVD, Divine Word Missionaries, Donamon, Co Roscommon (tomcee@eircom.net)
