Weekly Offerings: Thank you for your generosity to last week's collection which amounted to £970.

Remembering Our Dead: Pray for Rose McCullagh, Niall O'Hagan and Annie & Peter McAleer, whose anniversaries occur.

Fill their hearts with your Holy Spirit, the Spirit of understanding, joy fortitude and peace
 We offer congratulations and prayerful support from our parish community to Barry O'Neill (Badoney Lower) and Roisin McCullagh (Greencastle) Saturday 6th July
Shaun Campbell (Templemore) and Ciara Morris (Greencastle) Friday 12th July
 They recently committed themselves to each other in the sacrament of Christian Marriage.

St. Patrick's Church Cemetery: Our next stage of development will be to draw up as accurate a map of the cemetery as possible and the location of all known graves.
It will be shared for your viewing when completed

Public Prayers for the Faithful Departed: Fr. Hasson extends sincere thanks to all involved in last weekend's ceremonies and to everyone who helped. We were blessed with exceptionally good weather this year.

Greencastle GAA: Due to work taking place at the football grounds the club would ask if parents be extra vigilant when dropping off and collecting children at the various activities taking place over the summer and to ensure that they do not go anywhere near the construction sites. It has also been noted that numbers of young people are attending the hall unsupervised. Please note that for insurance reasons children are only allowed on the premises as part of a programme, event, football training or games.
Thank you for your co-operation

What can you volunteer to do in your parish? We need new lectors for our 11.00am Sunday Mass. Readers for the Prayers of Intercession, collectors and altar society helpers. During the summer months we will not follow an organised rota for the presentation of the Offertory Gifts but invite any families to perform this important role for us and anyone willing to offer secretarial skills for parish work (2-3 hours per week) on a voluntary basis must contact Fr. Hasson.
Thank you for everything our parish workers do for our faith community

Prayer for the Diocese of Derry at this time Fr. Kieran Devlin P. Em (Badoney Lower, 2012)
 God our Father, we your people of the diocese of Derry, turn to you in prayer, as our ancestors have done, in good times and bad, since the days of Saint Columba and Saint Eugene, Saint Lurach and Saint Mura.
 Although aware that we are unworthy of your grace, with confidence in your love we ask your help.
 Support and care for our bishops in their retirement, give courage and vision to those who are called on to administer the diocese at this time.
 Grant your wisdom and discernment to those charged with the task of choosing your next bishop.
 We ask you this in the name of Jesus, your Son, our Lord.
Mary Mother of the Church, pray for us, Saint Columba, pray for us, Saint Eugene, pray for us, Saint Lurach pray for us, Saint Mura pray for us, all you saints of the diocese pray for us.

Seeing your life through the lens of the gospels – Luke 10:25-37: John Byrne OSA (john@orlagh.ie)

1. Today's Gospel brings us right to the heart of what a Christian life involves: love of God and of neighbour. Jesus tells us that having life both now and in the future is the fruit of living in a spirit of love. How have you experienced love given and received as a source of life and vitality?
2. With media today we are brought face to face with suffering, poverty and hunger so vast that it can engender a feeling of helplessness and hopelessness. The parable challenges us about how we react when we come face to face with a person in need. We may sometimes try to avoid getting involved. Recall when you overcame this reaction and reached out to help. What did that do for you, and for the other person?
3. Bring to mind the people who have been an inspiration to you by the care and attention they have given to others?

Altar Servers: Please notice the important role of altar servers in the prayer life of our faithful community, we currently need new volunteers to strengthen the teams already serving so if you will commit, please do so soon.

Lough Derg Traditional Three Day Pilgrimage: The last date for entering the island is Friday 13th August. This pilgrimage attracts people of all ages and walks of life, from different cultures and social backgrounds. Stepping outside their ordinary lives and routine, they leave behind many of the trappings of the modern world. Pilgrims will have begun their commitment by fasting from the previous midnight: they follow a set routine of prayers and actions, hallowed by centuries of practice, all the while fasting and walking barefooted. Pilgrims make nine 'Stations' during their time on the island. The Station is a mantra-type prayer; allowing pilgrims to get in touch with their real inner selves in a most authentic way. The challenging nature of the fasting vigil and Stations is complemented by excellent communal celebrations in the Basilica.

The Deep End – Jesus Send Out the Seventy-Two: Jane Mellett (janemellett@yahoo.com)

Parables are never what they seem. They have a clever way of causing confusion and forcing you to figure out what is really going on beneath the surface. The Samaritan, an outcast, is made the hero of this story. This would have caused outrage amongst those who heard the parable. The oil and the wine have a significant part to play as the priest and Levite may have had such items with them for making sacrifices in the Temple. It is, however, the Samaritan who offers correct worship to God as he uses the oil and wine to clean the man's wounds. Jesus spoke about a God who was not concerned with the constraints of the Temple, but God who was in the streets. Look at what the Samaritan does for the man on the road: bound his wounds, poured oil, took him to an inn etc. They are all action words. The emphasis in this parable is on action and on compassion. The lawyer is concerned with the limits to 'love of neighbour'. But there are no limits, no boundaries, no outsiders in God's Kingdom. Holiness is not separation from the marginalised, but proximity to them.

Our prayer, our worship, our fasting are of little value to God if we have ignored those of God's children who suffer on the margins of our societies. We are Christians who follow the message of Jesus, not because we say "Lord, Lord"... it is in our compassion that we imitate God who is compassion. Peter McVerry

Guidelines on Use of Modern Technology when Working with Children: - Use of photography and video
 The use of photography and video is an issue of great concern among those working with children. The Diocese recognises that every parish has their own arrangements in relation to its use in schools, youth groups and for the sacraments however the guidelines have been devised below to aid parishes and diocesan groups:

- It is always good practice to seek written permission from a parent or guardian before taking any photographs or video footage of children. This written permission must be sought from the parent/guardian or the person who owns the photograph before it can be displayed on promotional materials or websites. This can be incorporated in the registration form when a child joins a group (template permission Resource 10);
- Neither names nor any personal information should be displayed alongside any photographs;
- Special consideration should be given where taking photographs or video footage might be misinterpreted, or the images could be seen as provocative (e.g. beach trip or gymnastics display etc.). It is not to say, however, that with the right planning, these events cannot be recorded and enjoyed.
- Photography and video recording are important methods of recording social activity and providing an historic record – illustrating and validating important moments in people's lives. This process is a powerful and personal one, and therefore we must respect the rights of everyone to make the choice whether or not to be photographed.

The notice comes from the Safeguarding Policy and Procedures and is published on behalf of the Diocesan Safeguarding Committee

| Questions people ask: | Fr. Silvester O'Flynn OFM Cap (silvesteroflynn@gmail.com) |
| Q. What is blasphemy against the Holy Spirit? The Gospel (Matt 12:31) says that this sin will not be forgiven in either in this world or in the next. | |
| A. Blasphemy means uttering words of hatred, rejection or defiance of God. Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit means the deliberate defiance of God's grace and the refusal to accept God's love and forgiveness. God still desires to embrace the sinner with forgiveness but this has to be accepted by the person. The sin cannot be forgiven if the sinner defies God and refuses to accept forgiveness. | |

| Engaged Encounter – Rules for Arguing: Couples who discover they have a disagreement are invited by Engaged Encounter to share their opinions in the following manner. The sentences following the rules are Jay Keenan's comments from his perspective as an Engaged Encounter leader with his wife Suzanne. |
| NO NAME CALLING This includes using affectionate names sarcastically |
| NO THIRD PARTIES The argument is between the two of you |
| NO PAST HISTORY If it's already been settled, don't bring it up again |
| STICK TO THE SUBJECT Identify the real problem — don't go to other issues |
| NO CHEAP SHOTS Don't use the other's weakness to gain advantage; you may win the argument, but injure your relationship |
| DON'T GO TO BED ANGRY Finish the argument or call a truce and agree on a time to continue |
| MAINTAIN A SENSE OF HUMOUR Don't take yourselves too seriously; laughter can be the best medicine |
| HOLD HANDS WHILE ARGUING This helps to keep your focus where it belongs — on the person who means more to you than anyone in the world |

| Celebrations to mark the Tercentenary of the death of Dean Bryan Maguirc |
| To mark the occasion a number of events are being organised which hopefully will bring home to all of us the immense contribution Dean Maguirc made to the life of the Catholic Church in Ireland during the worst ravages of the Penal Times in the 17 th and 18 th centuries. He was born in the parish of Termonmagurk, probably in 1635. According to a local tradition Aghnacreggan was the townland of his birthplace. He received a thorough education in Ireland where many of the old Gaelic families cultivated a high standard of learning and in 1660 he was ordained priest. In the early years of his priesthood he ministered as parish priest of Termonmagurk, Errigal Ciaran and Aghaloo. Ten years after Dean Maguirc's ordination, St Oliver Plunkett arrived in Armagh as Archbishop in 1670 and within two years he appointed Bryan Maguirc Vicar General of the Archdiocese of Armagh. Two years later St Oliver Plunkett appointed Dean Maguirc, whom he described as a 'learned and exemplary man', Vicar General of the Diocese of Raphoe and within a few years in 1679 he was appointed Vicar General of Derry. On the 13 th February, 1713 Dean Bryan Maguirc died in Armagh Gaol. |

This Week's Calendar of Feasts and Saints:

- Sunday 14th July – St. Camillus de Lellis (priest) [1550-1614] Rough tempered and a gambler in his early life as a soldier was converted at the age of twenty-five. Guided by Saint Philip Neri he became a priest and worked for the sick with two companions. His Servants of the Sick prospered and founded hospitals especially where others would not go. Patron of nurses, hospitals and the sick. [Not celebrated this year]
- Monday 15th July – St. Bonaventure (priest and doctor of the Church) [1221-1274] Born in Tuscany, Minister General of the Franciscans, Cardinal Archbishop of Albano, theologian of the Council of Lyons, known as the Seraphic Doctor.
- Wednesday 16th July – Our Lady of Mount Carmel The Carmelite Communities inherit the early hermits' devotion to Elijah and his solitary prayer, and to Mary under this title of Mount Carmel.
