Confirmation 2010. The Sacrament of Confirmation will be imparted by Bishop Hegarty upon 12 young parishioners in Our Lady of the Wayside Church, Broughderg (which on 1st September will celebrate twenty-five years of service to our faith-community). These young people have been learning about their faith in school with the help of Mrs. McCann, their year 7 teacher and the teachers who have taught them in previous years. With the help of their parents, families, godparents and friends they have been taught at home through the practice of prayer, and the character development that comes with a life lived by faith in the domestic household. With their families they have been encouraged to participate in the worshipping life of our faith community at Sunday Mass every week. They have taken it in turn and along with the year 3 pupils preparing for First Eucharist to present the gifts at the Offertory of the Mass each week throughout the year, - not a huge or onerous responsibility but a significant one. From now on there will be many more challenges and opportunities to witness to their faith – today, as a parish community we pray that these young people will meet these with faith, hope and love.

Today's confirmation ceremony will be the fourth to be held at Our Lady of the Wayside Church, Broughderg. Bishop Edward Daly confirmed 20 boys and 20 girls on Monday 3rd May, 1986 and he confirmed 22 boys and 17 girls on Saturday 5th March, 1988 – Greencastle and Badoney Lower parishes came together for the ceremonies. Bishop Seamus Hegarty confirmed 5 boys and 8 girls on Sunday 25th April, 2004 and he will confirm 5 boys and 7 girls today. The young people being confirmed today are:

Connor Patrick Bradley - Caoileann Mary Conway - Megan Conway - Aaron Brendan Donnelly
 Lauryn Ashley Hollywood - Michaela Susan McBride - Maeve Anna McCullagh - Noel James McKenna
 Conan Barry Maguire - Shauna Mary Morris - Aileen Teresa Tracey - Jack Francis Touhey

This class can look back to those previously confirmed for example and encouragement in Christian living just as they will inspire those coming after them ...

The class of 2004 Cahir McCullagh - John McCullagh - Christopher McGuigan - Darren McKenna

Check out qubcc.org. If you have any Chaplaincy related photos we would love copies of them for the Centenary Display!

Broughderg First Responders Scheme: The role of a First Responder is to attend, when possible a patient who has collapsed and administer CPR and / or defibrillation whilst awaiting for an ambulance crew to attend. The Broughderg First Responders are volunteers who live and work in the local area they are fully trained and are fully insured. When an appropriate 999 call is received from the area covered by the First Responder Scheme; the volunteers are notified and try to attend to provide whatever care is reasonable. First Responders will only attend when dispatched by Ambulance Control. They have no role in the diagnosis or management of illness apart from the collapsed patient. There will always be a 999 ambulance in attendance. Volunteers are clearly identifiable as they will have ID with them. They will provide whatever care is reasonable and will endeavour to assist either doctors or members of the Ambulance Service as appropriate. If you require any further information about the scheme please do not hesitate to get in touch. Janet Shields (Dalriada Urgent Care) (028) 2566 3502

Lough Derg 2010 Season Guide at www.loughderg.org: For the 2010 season we are once again offering a varied programme. The usual Three Day Pilgrimages, One Day Retreats, Quiet Days and a Day for Families, along with Confirmation and School Retreats and the Life's Journey Series of Workshops will provide opportunities for many to visit. Whether it is for healing or strength, or for reconciliation or renewal, we invite you to join us for a few hours or a day (or three days!). Whatever your reason for wanting to be connected with the Holy Island, know that we are committed to bringing you the Gift of Hope.

ACCORD – Annual Recruitment Campaign. ACCORD is looking for people who are currently married in the Catholic Church or currently in a marriage recognised by the Catholic Church for 5 years, have the ability to convey a positive attitude to marriage, have an openness and commitment to working within a Catholic organisation, relate easily to people, are able to be part of a team and are sensitive, warm, caring and accepting. In particular, we are seeking volunteers to deliver our Marriage Preparation Courses in the Omagh centre. Last year we prepared 137 couples for the sacrament of marriage in our centre. We realise that this doesn't fully meet the demands for this service and we would be grateful if you could help us in our attempts to identify suitable people to carry out this important work. We are hosting an informal information evening on Wednesday 21st April at 8.00pm for those interested in working with ACCORD and who want to find out more about what a facilitator's role involves without any commitment being required. Mount Saint Columba Pastoral Centre, 48 Brook Street, Omagh. Tel (028) 8224 2439..

Study Theology From Home: The Dominicans are offering a theology programme specifically for lay people, offered by distance learning. This means that one can study for a certificate, diploma or degree in theology, and even more importantly, become more educated in the Faith, all from the comfort of home. The Sacrament of Confirmation: In the Church's teaching Confirmation is one of the seven sacraments instituted by Christ for the conferral of sanctifying grace and the strengthening of the union between individual souls and God. The Catechism of the Catholic Church in its paragraphs (1302-1303) teaches:

It is evident from its celebration that the effect of the sacrament of Confirmation is the special outpouring of the Holy Spirit as once granted to the apostles on the day of Pentecost.

From this fact, Confirmation brings an increase and deepening of baptismal grace:

- it roots us more deeply in the divine filiation which makes us cry, "Abba! Father!" (Romans 8:15);
- it unites us more firmly to Christ;
- it increases the gifts of the Holy Spirit in us;
- it renders our bond with the Church more perfect;
- it gives us a special strength of the Holy Spirit to spread and defend the faith by word and action as true witnesses of Christ, to confess the name of Christ boldly, and never to be ashamed of the Cross:

Recall then that you have received the spiritual seal, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of right judgment and courage, the spirit of knowledge and reverence, the spirit of holy fear in God's presence. Guard what you have received. God the Father has marked you with his sign; Christ the Lord has confirmed you and has placed his pledge, the Spirit, in your hearts.

The roots of confirmation are found in Acts of the Apostles 8:14-17, "Now when the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent them Peter and John, who went down and prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit, for it had not yet fallen upon any of them; they had only been baptised in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then they laid hands on them and they received the holy Spirit." See also the Gospel of Saint John, chapter 14 where Christ speaks of the coming of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles. In the Latin-Rite Catholic Church, the sacrament is customarily conferred only on persons old enough to understand it, and the ordinary minister of confirmation is a bishop.

"The practice of the Latin Church more clearly expresses the communion of the new Christian with the bishop as guarantor and servant of the unity, catholicity and apostolicity of his Church, and hence the connection with the apostolic origins of Christ's Church."

Reserving administration of the sacrament to a bishop, who cannot be present at every infant baptism, means that large groups of older children and young adults are confirmed together, making the occasion something of a rite of passage and an opportunity to profess personal commitment to the faith. However, the Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1308 warns: "Although Confirmation is sometimes called the 'sacrament of Christian maturity,' we must not confuse adult faith with the adult age of natural growth, nor forget that the baptismal grace is a grace of free, unmerited election and does not need 'ratification' to become effective."

In the early twentieth century, Pope Pius X encouraged the admission of children to reception of the Eucharist as soon as they reached the age of reason, in contrast to the later age at which they had been admitted for some centuries. Since the age for confirmation remained as before, those being confirmed generally received the Eucharist several years earlier. However, the three sacraments of Christian initiation, baptism, confirmation and Eucharist, are increasingly conferred, within the Latin-Rite Catholic Church, in the traditional order, which is obligatory when an adult is baptised.

The Catholic Church teaches that, like baptism, confirmation marks the recipient permanently, making it impossible to receive the sacrament twice.

One of the effects of the sacrament is that "it gives us a special strength of the Holy Spirit to spread and defend the faith by word and action as true witnesses of Christ, to confess the name of Christ boldly, and never to be ashamed of the Cross" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1303). This effect has been described as making the confirmed person "a soldier of Christ".

The same passage of the Catechism of the Catholic Church also mentions, as an effect of confirmation, that "it renders our bond with the Church more perfect". This mention stresses the importance of participation in the Christian community.

The "soldier of Christ" imagery, which remains valid but is downplayed if seen as part of the once common idea of confirmation as a "sacrament of maturity" was used as far back as 350 by St. Cyril of Jerusalem. In this connection, the touch on the cheek that the bishop gave while saying "Pax tecum" (Peace be with you) to the person he had just confirmed was interpreted as a slap, a reminder to be brave in spreading and defending the faith: "Deinde leviter eum in maxilla caedit, dicens: Pax tecum" (Then he strikes him lightly on the cheek, saying: Peace be with you). When, in application of the Second Vatican Council's Constitution on the → ← Sacred Liturgy, the confirmation rite was revised in 1971, mention of this gesture was omitted. However, the French and Italian translations, indicating that the bishop should accompany the words "Peace be with you" with "a friendly gesture" (French text) or "the sign of peace" (Italian text), explicitly allow a gesture such as the touch on the cheek, to which they restore its original meaning.

Information on other effects and broader matters concerning this sacrament can be found in the Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1285-1321.

Confirmation name. In many English-speaking countries and in German-speaking lands it is customary for a person being confirmed in the Catholic Church to adopt the name of a saint with whom he/she feels a special affinity, thus securing an additional patron saint to be his/her protector and guide. The saint's name is often used in conjunction with the confirmer's middle name, and is without effect in civil law, unless, of course, the confirmer pursues the appropriate legal avenues.

This Week's Calendar of Saints:

Sunday 18th April – St. Laserian (bishop) Not celebrated this year.

Wednesday 21st April – St. Anselm (bishop and doctor of the Church) From Lombardy he joined the monastic school at Bec in Normandy in 1059 under the direction of Lanfranc, whom he succeeded as Archbishop of Canterbury. He was exiled twice and died in 1109.

Friday 23rd April – St. George (martyr) Was venerated as a soldier saint at Lydda in the Holy Land where he was probably martyred around the year 300. His cult may have been popularised in England and Ireland by returning crusaders. He is patron saint of England, Portugal, of soldiers and of the Scout Movement.

St. Adalbert of Prague (bishop and martyr) (956-997) After being bishop of Prague, went as a missionary among the Prussians on the Polish coast where he was martyred in 997.

Saturday 24th April – St. Fidelis of Signmaringen (priest and martyr) (1578-1622) A Capuchin who preached to the Calvinists in Switzerland where he was killed by a group of extremists.

Seeing your life through the lens of the gospels – John 21:1-9:

1. The disciples spend a fruitless night fishing and catching nothing. Things change dramatically when Jesus appears and invites them to try again. Remember those who came to you and encouraged you to try again when you felt discouraged. Perhaps on some of these occasions the results were beyond your expectations.
2. The story can serve as a reminder that sometimes we are wasting our time if we try to work on our own without the Lord's help. When have you found that your work or life was more fruitful when you acknowledged that you needed God's help and you spoke to God about your need?
3. Peter is given the chance to be fully reconciled with his Master after his denial during the Passion. Remember those who have given you an opportunity for reconciliation after you had hurt them or let them down. What was it like for you to be given this chance? To whom have you offered the possibility of reconciliation?

The Deep End – Jack-of-all-trades:

Jack has been the most popular name for baby boys in Britain for 13 years running. In Ireland for a number of years it was the second most popular name to ... yes, Seán. No playmate leapfrogging from John to Jack. It was up front, plain and simple, in-your-face-from-the-start, Jack. So what, you may ask. Well, it might indicate that the poetry of life has gone out the door for many parents and that a pedestrian prose has replaced it. If so, what a pity! With due apologies to the Jacks of all shades, the name does have its yawn factor.

The equally soporific Charles, on the other hand, can be an intoxicant when followed by the name Dickens for collectors of curios. Proof? Well, a 150-year-old wine bottle of his sold for £1,500. Just the bottle, empty! But then, it did have part of a label on the outside and dried sediment on the inside. But it was the owner's name that counted. Joe Blogg wouldn't have got a look in.

Today's First Reading refers to a name: As they left the council they rejoiced that they were considered worthy to suffer dishonour for the sake of the name. (Acts 5:27-32, 40-41) If a famous name can add so much value to an otherwise worthless object how much more so the name of Jesus when branded by baptism on a human heart! It's important that the 'brand' name 'Christian' be recognised through its bearer becoming 'all things to all men', and not just a Jack-of-all-trades to the few.

Fr. Tom Cahill SVD, Divine Word Missionaries, Donamon, Co Roscommon (tomcee@eircom.net)

Questions people ask:

Q. What do you think of people who are officially signing themselves out of the Church?

A. I feel sorry people who would deprive themselves of the privilege of participating with Jesus in the Eucharistic worship of the Father, and turn their backs on the astounding invitation to receive Jesus as the Bread of Life. The Lord's presence in the Eucharist is not conditional on the holiness or sinfulness of the priest at the altar. It is a divine gift, not something of human making. The first person to say count-me-out was Judas as he left the Last Supper. The Gospel says that he went into the dark. Father, forgive them for they know not what they do.
