Many thanks to everyone who organised, attended and participated in the SPECIAL MASS on Friday evening last in Plumbridge and to those who graciously welcomed and provided the lovely refreshments afterwards in the parish hall. I am indebted to you all, especially for your remarkable kindness and hospitality. I appreciate deeply all the generous words and gifts I received and I am touched and genuinely humbled by the many thoughtful expressions of warm sentiment and support offered by so many on the occasion of the 40th anniversary of my ordination. I can only hope I am deserving of your kind accolade and attention. Thanks again for your generosity and cordial support. Fr. Brian
