Trócaire: 40 Years (1973-2013) – Working for a Just World: You will recall that last year's Trócaire Lenten appeal included an element of matched funding from the UK Department for International Development (DFID), which matched, pound for pound, all donations up to a maximum of £900,000. Your role in securing this matched funding target was crucial, as it could not have been achieved without the commitment shown by parishes to collect and return the proceeds of the Trócaire Lenten appeal quickly, so as to meet the very tight deadline set by DFID. In addition, parishioners across the country responded with incredible generosity, which also enabled us to secure this extra funding.

These funds are currently being used to support Trócaire's livelihoods programme in Northern Uganda, which will run until 2015, a programme which is based on our vision of a just and peaceful world where people's dignity is ensured, rights are respected, and where basic needs are met.

A key aspect of the initiative with DFID is to communicate with our supporters on how the money they have contributed is being spent, and the effect it is having on improving the lives of poor families and communities in northern Uganda. Therefore, I have pleasure in enclosing copies of a booklet we have produced called 'Making a Difference', which provides actual stories and testimony from families who are part of this livelihoods programme.

Thank you for your support in securing this funding opportunity last year. We will shortly be applying to gain matching funding as part of next year's Trócaire Lenten appeal, and would once again seek your support with it should we be successful. Yours sincerely Eithne McNulty – Regional Director – Trócaire. Making a Difference is available in the sacristy of our parish churches

This Week's Calendar of Feasts and Saints:
Tuesday 27th August – St. Monica [332-387] Converted her pagan husband Patricius to the faith, and by her prayers and tears brought her son, St. Augustine to Christianity and a moral life. Patron saint of mothers.
Wednesday 28th August – St. Augustine (bishop and doctor of the Church) [354-430] Bishop of Hippo where he lived with a community until his death. His theological influence has been most significant in the Church, especially on understanding God's grace. Patron saint of theologians.
Thursday 29th August – The Passion of John the Baptist (martyr) The preface in today's Mass lists the favours shown to St. John the Baptist and the vocation given him. He is found worthy of a martyr's death, and his last and greatest act of witness to Christ.
Friday 30th August – St. Fiacre An Irishman who went abroad to seek a hermitage. He passed through Normandy and eventually met Faro, who was a great patron of Irish pilgrims at Meaux. Fiacre was given a hermitage near Breuil and there he stayed until his death around 670.
Saturday 31st August – St. Aidan of Lindisfarne (bishop and missionary) Of Irish descent and a monk of Iona. When Oswald, the exiled king of Northumbria who had fled for refuge to Iona, returned to his throne in 634, he invited Aidan to come to reconvert his people. Aidan made his headquarters at Lindisfarne. With the aid of the king as interpreter he was successful in his mission. Died in 651.

Questions people ask: Fr. Silvester O'Flynn OFM Cap (silvesteroflynn@gmail.com)
 Q. Could you please clarify for me the various sins of the tongue like blasphemy, cursing etc.?
 A. Blasphemy is a statement of hatred or defiance of God. Profanity means taking the name of God or Jesus without proper respect and it reveals the shallowness of faith. Cursing is the opposite of prayer because it means calling down evil on somebody. Swearing is calling God as a witness to the truth of what is saying. To swear on a lie is the serious sin of perjury. Obscenity means filthy talk which offends people or degrades sexuality. Detraction means revealing the faults of another without valid reason. Calumny is harming the good name of another by false statement. Saint James wrote that the tongue may be a small part of the body but think how a tiny flame can cause a whole forest to be destroyed.

Seeing your life through the lens of the gospels – Luke 13:22-30: John Byrne OSA (john@orlagh.ie)

1. The question put to Jesus is one that many still ask: 'Will many be saved?' In his answer Jesus is not concerned about numbers but warns his listeners about complacency. Just as his listeners could not regard the mere fact of being Jews as sufficient for salvation, neither can we regard being Christians as enough. That entitlement will come from our acceptance of Jesus. For any relationship to be alive – either with God or with another human person – the real question is 'Is my heart in this relationship?' What does your experience tell you of this?
2. 'Strive to enter by the narrow door.' Jesus himself is on his journey to Jerusalem, purposeful and determined. His true followers will also be purposeful and determined. That is true in any journey, career or relationship if there is to be growth or progress. What it is like for you when you fail to do this? What is it like for you when the effort is there?

The Deep End – Curiouser and Curiouser: Triona Doherty, Athlone, Co. Roscommon (trionad@gmail.com)

A narrow door, a locked door, futile knocking and an unsympathetic doorkeeper – it's almost as if the master in today's Gospel story wants to keep people out!

In the opening chapter of Lewis Carroll's Alice's Adventures in Wonderland, Alice has a bit of bother with doors. The doors in the hall in which she find herself are all locked. When she finds a key, it doesn't fit the locks. When she manages to find a door to match the key, she herself won't fit through; the doorway is too narrow.

'Alice opened the door and found that it led into a small passage, not much larger than a rat-hole: she knelt down and looked along the passage into the loveliest garden you ever saw. How she longed to get out of that dark hall, and wander about among those beds of bright flowers and those cool fountains, but she could not even get her head though the doorway.'

There is a similar predicament for those in Jesus' story. They knock on the door and expect to be admitted, but it is not that simple. They are too late – the door has been locked and the master turns them away.

What does Jesus mean when he says we must strive to 'enter by the narrow door'? Is it almost impossible to enter the kingdom of God? The narrow door is Jesus. But it is not enough to have encountered him and heard his teachings. One must have walked the narrow path of the Gospel.

Guidelines on Use of Modern Technology when Working with Children: - Use of photography and video

The use of photography and video is an issue of great concern among those working with children. The Diocese recognises that every parish has their own arrangements in relation to its use in schools, youth groups and for the sacraments however the guidelines have been devised below to aid parishes and diocesan groups:

- It is always good practice to seek written permission from a parent or guardian before taking any photographs or video footage of children. This written permission must be sought from the parent/guardian or the person who owns the photograph before it can be displayed on promotional materials or websites. This can be incorporated in the registration form when a child joins a group (template permission Resource 10);
- Neither names nor any personal information should be displayed alongside any photographs;
- Special consideration should be given where taking photographs or video footage might be misinterpreted, or the images could be seen as provocative (e.g. beach trip or gymnastics display etc.). It is not to say, however, that with the right planning, these events cannot be recorded and enjoyed.
- Photography and video recording are important methods of recording social activity and providing an historic record – illustrating and validating important moments in people's lives. This process is a powerful and personal one, and therefore we must respect the rights of everyone to make the choice whether or not to be photographed.

Engaged Encounter – Rules for Arguing: Couples who discover they have a disagreement are invited by Engaged Encounter to share their opinions in the following manner. The sentences following the rules are Jay Keenan's comments from his perspective as an Engaged Encounter leader with his wife Suzanne.
NO NAME CALLING	This includes using affectionate names sarcastically
NO THIRD PARTIES	The argument is between the two of you
NO PAST HISTORY	If it's already been settled, don't bring it up again
STICK TO THE SUBJECT	Identify the real problem — don't go to other issues
NO CHEAP SHOTS	Don't use the other's weakness to gain advantage; you may win the argument, but injure your relationship
DON'T GO TO BED ANGRY	Finish the argument or call a truce and agree on a time to continue
MAINTAIN A SENSE OF HUMOUR	Don't take yourselves too seriously; laughter can be the best medicine
HOLD HANDS WHILE ARGUING	This helps to keep your focus where it belongs — on the person who means more to you than anyone in the world
